PERSONAL.

M. V. Smith of Belton is in the city. Mr. Fred King has gone to New Or-still languishing in the county jail at El Paso for some swindling practice there. He might also ornament a cell in the Fort Worth bastile if a gentleman here was disposed to prosecute him.

Attention, Fencibles. All members are ordered to meet in armory at 8:30 o'clood this evening. By A. B. SMITH, First Sergeant. order of the captain.

Two Orphans-Kate Claxton. The hold the play of the Two Orphans has upon the public is a tenscious one. It appears to be a drama that will live, and it certainly is a drama that should. It was produced at the Grand opera house last evening by the Kate Claxton combination, and the large audience present

PROOF POSITIVE.

More Evidence Against the Fort Worth

Counterfeiters. The patient search of Officer McBride after some of the tools used by Callahan and Mrs. Wiley, the pair arrested here not long since for counterfeiting, was rewarded yesterday. The capture of this gang was brought about by the arrest of a man named Cargle and two boys at Alvarado, where they were shov-ing bogus coin. One of the boys was Mrs. Wiley's son. The youngster gave the business away, and Officers McBride and Gerren caught Callahan and the woman over Isenhower's store on Main street

They were all taken to Dallas and nation, and the large audience present gave it an enthusiastic welcome. Miss tion of one of the boys whose mother Claxton gave her familiar impersonation lives in Fort Worth. Since then McBride of the blind Louise, and she never appeared to better advantage. The supporting company is a strong one, in fact the strongest one Miss Claxton ever presented to a New York audience.— New making the dollars—a miserable the molds which they used in making the dollars — a miserable plaster of paris affair, the roughness of which showed the limited mental caliber of the makers. They used babbitt metal in place of silver, and the colus they translated out may delive, along the and withturned out were daises-black, and with-out the faintest vestige of a ring. That A gentleman in this city, who has just been issued a patent on a refrigerator, proposes to start an enterprise in Fort staff is incredible. They also turned out Worth that he is confident will result in great good to the community. In the molds for them have not yet been found, first place he claims for his refrigerator. With this and the other evidence

His idea is to mount them on cars and ship direct to New Orleans frozen carcasses of beef, mutton, veal and game, besides poultry of every kind. It is believed that a thriving traffic
